

PRAYER FOR HUSBANDS

HIS EYES

I pray that he will keep looking steadily into Your law for free men, so that he does what it says, so that You may greatly bless him in everything he does (James 1:25). Make him always see clearly the difference between right and wrong and to be inwardly clean so that no one can find fault in him (Philippians 1:10). I will never stop thanking You, God, for my husband. I ask You to give him wisdom to see clearly and really understand who Jesus is and all that He did for him. I pray that You will flood his heart with Your light so that he can see the future You have called us to share (Ephesians 1:17-18).

HIS EARS

Dear Father, Your word says that faith comes by hearing by Your word (Romans 10:17). I pray that my husband will hear Your words with His heart, not just his head. (Psalm 78:1). Cause him to hear Your voice so that You can instruct him. (Deuteronomy 4:36).

Speak to him again and again. Open his ears and give him wisdom, causing him to know Your mind, keeping him from pride, warning him of the penalties of sin, and keeping him from satan's temptation (Job 33:14-17). When You speak to him, I pray that he will listen and not resist or turn away. (Isaiah 50:5)

HIS NOSE

Thank You, Lord, that as far as You are concerned, there is a sweet, wholesome fragrance in his life. It is the fragrance of Jesus within him, an aroma to both the saved and the unsaved around him. To those who know Jesus, may my husband be a refreshing fragrance, a life-giving perfume. (2 Corinthians 2:15)

HIS MOUTH

Set a watch, O Lord; over his mouth and keep the door of his lips (Psalm 141:3). Grant to him great boldness in testimony (Acts 4:29). Give him Your words so that he may boldly make Jesus known (Ephesians 6:19). Give him many chances to share the Good News of Jesus and help him tell it lovingly, freely, fully, and plainly. Help him to make the most of his opportunities to tell others about the victory in Jesus and to be wise in all his contacts. Let his conversation be gracious and wise, for then he will have the right to answer for everyone. (Colossians 4:3-6). Give him Your words so that he may know what to say to all (Isaiah 50:4). Whatever he does or says, let it be as a representative of the Lord Jesus. (Colossians 3:17).

Help him in all that he does, Lord, not to complain or argue (Philippians 2:14). Sweeten the words of his lips to say only what is good and helpful and what will give others a blessing (Ephesians 4:29). Cause him to abstain from dirty stories, or foul talk and coarse jokes (Ephesians 5:4).

I pray that we will talk to each other much about You, quoting psalms and hymns and singing sacred songs, making music in our hearts to You (Ephesians 5:19). Let the words of his mouth and the meditation of his heart be acceptable to You, O Lord. (Psalm 19:14).

HIS BONES

Guide him continually, Lord, and satisfy his soul in drought, and make his bones healthy, so that he shall be like a watered garden and like a spring of water, which does not fail. (Isaiah 58:11).

HIS FEET

Thank You, Lord, for keeping him from despair and for setting his feet on a firm path. Continue to steady him as he walks along (Psalm 40:2). Hold his feet to Your path (Psalm 66:9). The steps of a good man are directed by You Lord. Thank You that You delight in each step that he takes (Psalm 37:23).

Thank You for giving him power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy.

A PRAYER FOR OUR MARRIAGE

I pray, Lord, that You will enable us to honor You by submitting to each other (Ephesians 5:21). May You, who gives patience, faithfulness and encouragement, help us to live in complete harmony with each other... each with the attitude of Jesus toward the other (Romans 15:5). As a result, may we live happily in Your love through all the days of life (Ecclesiastes 9:9). May he be faithful and true to me, rejoicing in the wife of his youth. May my tender embrace satisfy him. May my love alone fill him with delight (Proverbs 5:15, 18,19). May he realize that a good wife is worth more than precious gems. Let him know that he can put his trust in me and I am dedicated to helping him all my days. (Proverbs 31:10-12).

Lord, I will not get weary in prayer but keep praying and watching for Your answers. I will thank you when they come (Colossians 4:2). I will keep on rejoicing in You, for I know that as I pray for my husband, and the Holy Spirit helps him, everything works for our good and Your glory (Philippians 1:19, Romans 8:28,29).

Glory be to You, God, who by Your mighty power at work in my husband is able to do far more that I could ask or even dream of - beyond my highest prayers, hopes or thoughts. Glory to You through endless ages (Ephesians 3:20-21).

In Jesus Name, Amen.
