

PRAYER FOR WIVES

HER EYES

I pray that she will keep looking steadily into Your law for free men, so that she does what it says, so that You may greatly bless her in everything she does (James 1:25). Make her always see clearly the difference between right and wrong and to be inwardly clean so that no one can find fault in her (Phillipians 1:10). I will never stop thanking You, God, for my wife. I ask You to give her wisdom to see clearly and really understand who Jesus is and all that He did for her. I pray that You will flood her heart with Your light so that she can see the future You have called us to share (Ephesians 1:17-18).

HER EARS

Dear Father, Your Word says that faith comes by hearing by Your Word (Romans 10:17). I pray that my wife will hear Your words with her heart, not just her head. (Psalm 78:1). Cause her to hear Your voice so that You can instruct her. (Deuteronomy 4:36).

Speak to her again and again. Open her ears and give her wisdom, causing her to know Your mind, keeping her from pride, warning her of the penalties of sin, and keeping her from satan's temptation (Job 33:14-17). When You speak to her, I pray that she will listen and not resist or turn away. (Isaiah 50:5)

HER NOSE

Thank You, Lord, that as far as You are concerned, there is a sweet, wholesome fragrance in her life. It is the fragrance of Jesus within her, an aroma to both the saved and the unsaved around her. To those who know Jesus, may my wife be a refreshing fragrance, a life-giving perfume. (2 Corinthians 2:15)

HER MOUTH

Set a watch, O Lord; over her mouth and keep the door of her lips (Psalm 141:3). Grant to her great boldness in testimony (Acts 4:29). Give her Your words so that she may boldly make Jesus known (Ephesians 6:19). Give her many chances to share the Good News of Jesus and help her tell it lovingly, freely, fully, and plainly. Help her to make the most of her opportunities to tell others about the victory in Jesus and to be wise in all her contacts. Let her conversation be gracious and wise, for then she will have the right to answer for everyone. (Colossians 4:3-6). Give her Your words so that she may know what to say to all (Isaiah 50:4). Whatever she does or says, let it be as a representative of the Lord Jesus. (Colossians 3:17).

Help her in all that she does, Lord, not to complain or argue (Phillipians 2:14). Sweeten the words of her lips to say only what is good and helpful and what will give others a blessing (Ephesians 4:29). Cause her to abstain from dirty stories, or foul talk and course jokes (Ephesians 5:4).

I pray that we will talk to each other much about You, quoting psalms and hymns and singing sacred songs, making music in our hearts to You (Ephesians 5:19). Let the words of her mouth and the meditation of her heart be acceptable to You, O Lord. (Psalm 19:14).

HER BONES

Guide her continually, Lord, and satisfy her soul in drought, and make her bones healthy, so that she shall be like a watered garden and like a spring of water, which does not fail. (Isaiah 58:11).

HER FEET

Thank You, Lord, for keeping her from despair and for setting her feet on a firm path. Continue to steady her as she walks along (Psalm 40:2). Hold her feet to Your path (Psalm 66:9). The steps of a good woman are directed by You Lord. Thank You that You delight in each step that she takes (Psalm 37:23).

Thank You for giving her power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy.

A PRAYER FOR OUR MARRIAGE

I pray, Lord, that You will enable us to honor You by submitting to each other (Ephesians 5:21). May You, who gives patience, faithfulness and encouragement, help us to live in complete harmony with each other... each with the attitude of Jesus toward the other (Romans 15:5). Thank You, Lord, that I will love her as I love myself, giving myself up for her as Christ did for His bride, the church. (Ephesians 5:25,28).

Lord, I will not get weary in prayer but keep praying and watching for Your answers. I will thank you when they come (Colossians 4:2). I will keep on rejoicing in You, for I know that as I pray for my wife, and the Holy Spirit helps her, everything works for our good and Your glory (Phillippians 1:19, Romans 8:28,29).

Glory be to You, God, who by Your mighty power at work in my wife is able to do far more that I could ask or even dream of - beyond my highest prayers, hopes or thoughts. Glory to You through endless ages (Ephesians 3:20-21).

In Jesus Name, Amen.
